Treating Wrong Disease.

Many times women call on their family physicians, suffering, as they imagine, from dyspepsia, another from heart disease, another from liver or kidney disease, another from nervous exhaustion or prostration, another with pain here and there, and in this way they all present alike to themselves and their easy-going and indifferent, or over-busy doctor, separate and distinct diseases, for which he, assuming them to be such, prescribes his pills and potions. In reality, they are all only symptoms caused by some uterine disease. The physician, ignorant of the cause of suffering, encourages this practice until large bills are made. The suffering patient gets no better, but probably worse, by reason of the delay, wrong treatment and consequent complications. A proper medicine like Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription, directed to the cause would have promptly removed the disease, thereby dispelling all those distressing symptoms, and instituting comfort instead of prolonged misery. It has been well said, that "a disease known is half cured."

Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is a scientific medicine, carefully devised by an experienced and skillful physician, and adapted to woman's delicate system. It is made of native medicinal roots and is perfectly harmless in its effects in any condition of the system.

As a powerful invigorating tonic "Favorite Prescription" imparts strength to the whole system and to the organs distinctly feminine in particular. For overworked, "worn-out," "run-down," debilitated teachers, milliners, dressmakers, seamstresses, "shop girls," house-keepers, nursing mothers, and feeble women generally, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the greatest earthly boon, being unequalled as an appetizing cordial and restorative tonic.

As a soothing and strengthening nerve "Favorite Prescription" is unequalled and is invaluable in allaying and subduing nervous excitability, irritability, nervous exhaustion, nervous prostration, neuralgia, hysteria, spasms, chorea, St. Vitus's dance, and other distressing nervous symptoms commonly attendant upon functional and organic disease of the uterus. It induces refreshing sleep and relieves mental anxiety and despondency.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate the stomach, liver and bowels. One to three a dose. Easy to take as candy.

UNDRESSING DISPELLED.

Men and Women Unnerved About It. Many women weep and wail and refuse to be comforted because their once magnificent tresses have become thin and faded. Many men incline to profanity because the flies bite through the thin thatch on their craniums. It will be good news to the miserably afflicted to learn that Newbro's Hairdressing has been placed upon the market. This is the new scalp granule and antiseptic that acts by destroying the germ or microbe that is the underlying cause of all hair destruction. Hairdressing is a new preparation, made after a new formula on an entirely new principle. Anyone who has tried it will testify to its worth. Try it and you will be convinced. Sold by leading druggists. Sent in stamps for sample to The Hairdressing Co., Detroit, Mich.

Died in Arms of Bride-elect.

With his affianced bride, Miss Edith Russell Wills, of Newburyport, Mass., tenderly bending over him, and with his sister, Mrs. L. Curtis, of Mount Vernon street; his faithful valet, Isaac Mullen, and Dr. Bender at his bedside, Capt. Nathan Appleton, author, traveler, Panama canal promoter and man of affairs, who, on July 3, obtained a divorce from his wife to permit him to wed the beautiful woman whom he had loved for years, died at noon Saturday in the Hotel Nottingham, Boston. In six months from the day he got his divorce Captain Appleton had expected to wed Miss Wills.

On November 16, 1887, Captain Appleton married in New York his second wife, Jeanette Maria Orington, daughter of Edward J. Orington, of Brooklyn. Their wedding attracted world-wide attention and was the most brilliant social incident of the season. Dr. Edward Everett Hale, of Boston, now chaplain of the United States Senate, performed the ceremony.

Scarcely a year after the marriage the friends of the couple were thunderstruck to learn that they had separated. A little later there came another sensation, when Col. Henry Clay Parsons of Natural Bridge, Va., appealed to the police to rescue his beautiful daughter from Mrs. Appleton, saying that the woman had hypnotized the girl and was keeping her against her wishes. But in vain, for the girl refused to leave her friends.

From the time he and his wife separated Captain Appleton lived as a lonely man, so far as his home was concerned. Although he had many friends, and his life was full of activities, he felt the need of companionship.

Ten years ago he met Miss Wills in Newburyport. Their acquaintance ripened as he saw her occasionally, but it was not until the time of the Russo-Japanese Peace Conference, in Portsmouth, that there promised to be any thing more to their friendship.

Early in December Captain Appleton announced his intention of suing the wife from whom he had been separated for 18 years for divorce, and told his friends of his hope, when free, to wed Miss Wills. In March he began his suit. Mrs. Appleton had engaged counsel and had declared her intention of contesting the case, but in the end she did not do so. The decree nisi was granted on July 3. On July 12 Captain Appleton made the formal announcement of his engagement to Miss Wills.

Ordered to be Deported.

The case of 40 Russian Hebrew children who arrived at New York Saturday on the steamship Amerika was heard by the board of special inquiry at the immigration station on Ellis Island yesterday, and the board, after deliberation, decided that the children should be excluded from the country. Accordingly, their deportation was ordered. This, however, is not final, and the case has already gone on appeal to Washington. The children, all of them, made orphans by the recent massacres in Russia, were gathered from the centers of recent trouble and taken to New York, in charge of Mrs. Sophie Perlmann, of Berlin. Wealthy Hebrews of New York supplied the funds and secured homes throughout the country where the children could be sent.

The orphans were taken before Board No. 2, of which Inspector Parbury is chairman. Secretary Waldman, of the United Hebrew Charities, appeared in behalf of the children. He said they would be well cared for, educated and looked after, and that there was no chance that they would become charges on the public.

The board, after consideration of the case, thought otherwise and announced that the children were ordered excluded. This action was taken under section 2 of the act of March 3, 1903, of the immigration laws.

Mr. Waldman said that the case would be appealed and a decision is expected in a few days. Under the ruling Mrs. Perlmann must return with her charges to insure their care on the journey back to Hamburg.

In the meantime the children will be well fed and well cared for on Ellis Island. Yesterday they were turned loose in the playground, where they spent the day having a good time.

Father Gapon's Death.

There has been received in London an extraordinary account of the death of Father Gapon, the Russian revolutionary leader who was found dead in a villa near St. Petersburg some months ago. According to the account then published, Father Gapon was lured to the villa by agents of the revolutionary party and hanged because he was suspected of having betrayed the secrets of the organization and of being in the pay of the police. It is now understood, however, that Father Gapon's murder was really due to jealousy, and that he was killed by a fellow countryman who disapproved of his methods.

He Was in Trouble.

"I was in trouble, but found a way out of it, and I'm a happy man again, since Dr. King's New Life Pills cured me of chronic constipation," says E. W. Goodloe, 107 St. Louis St., Dallas, Tex. Guaranteed satisfaction. Price 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Having used all the highly recommended creams and lotions, with much hesitancy I bought your entire treatment. After giving it a fair trial I most heartily recommend it, for it works like magic. covered his relations with a woman revolutionist—a Jewess. Moreover, Father Gapon's murderer is said to have escaped from St. Petersburg and to be now hiding in London, having adopted the English-sounding name of Martin. Martin's whereabouts is at present unknown but up to last Thursday he was living in the West End. The woman, who was associated with Father Gapon's revolutionary movement and who was the indirect cause of his death, has likewise disappeared.
